Cookies and how we use them

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file placed on your computer's hard drive. It enables our website to identify your computer as you view different pages on our website.

Cookies allow websites and applications to store your preferences in order to present content, options or functions that are specific to you. They also enable us to see information like how many people use the website and what pages they tend to visit.

How we use cookies

Allensmore Nurseries Ltd may use cookies to:

- Analyse our web traffic using an analytics package. Aggregated usage data helps us improve the website structure, design, content and functions.
- Identify whether you are signed in to our website. A cookie allows us to check whether you are signed in to the site.

Cookies do not provide us with access to your computer or any information about you, other than that which you choose to share with us.

Controlling cookies

You can use your web browser's cookie settings to determine how websites uses cookies.

- If you do not want our website to store cookies on your computer or device, you should set your web browser to refuse cookies.
- Note by doing this it may affect how our website functions. Some pages and services may become unavailable to you.
- Unless you have set your browser to refuse cookies, our website will issue cookies when you visit it.

Controlling information about you
